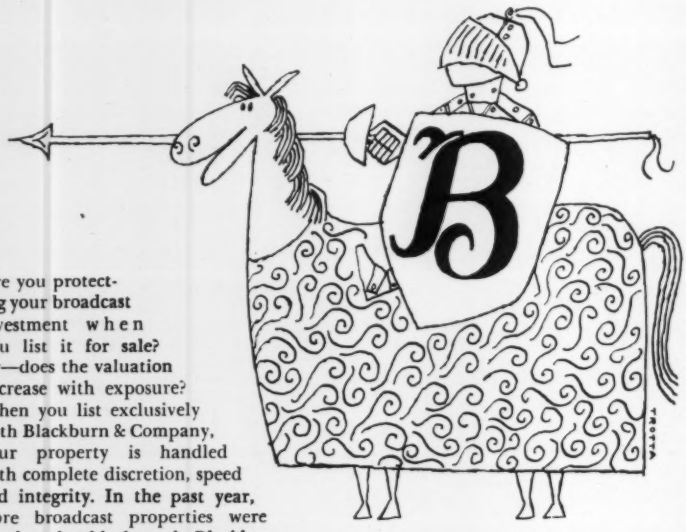
On your guard?



Are you protecting your broadcast investment when you list it for sale? Or—does the valuation decrease with exposure? When you list exclusively with Blackburn & Company, your property is handled with complete discretion, speed and integrity. In the past year, more broadcast properties were listed and sold through Blackburn & Company, than through any other broker.

engineered for safety, efficiency and economy

In fifteen years of assembling and erecting towers, antennas, micro-wave equipment and coax lines, Petroleum Engineering Service has built an unparalleled organization. From engineers to steel workers, the Petroleum Engineering Service team knows its business.

Included in the organization's Tower Division, are superintendents, foremen, and key men who are specialists in concrete and building construction. Most Petroleum Engineering Service contracts call for jobs that include: Designing, engineering, furnishing fabricating, grading, pouring concrete, installing tower equipment, building fences, access roads, power lines, any structures at the tower level.

Its centralization of supply and responsibility makes for utmost speed, economy, and quality. It enables Petroleum Engineering Service to guarantee unconditionally your tower against defects in design and erection.

Complete service on estimating, installing and maintenance of tower systems; including micro-wave, radio (am-fm) and Television.
